Berkeley and The Severn

Start . . . Berkeley Town Hall

Taking in the Deer Park, the River Severn and Berkeley this is a varied and very pleasant walk with only a short climb to give splendid views.

From the Town Hall walk towards Berkeley Castle (2) to take street on right marked to Jenner Museum, (1) descend hill and over bridge, turn left over stile into Castle meadows. Bear diagonally right across meadow to follow bank of Little Avon River left. Crossing three stiles, turn right over bridge and take right hand fork skirting Brownsmill Farm joining lane and continue to Ham Green. Turn left at main road (B4059) for 100m to road junction. Cross diagonally right, go through gate and bear left around pond to follow track diagonally up field and climb brick wall via steps and kissing gate into deer park (3). Bear half right to follow track up slope. Follow line of trees and keeping in same direction pass through gate to keep left of small fir wood. Follow along ridge to exit deer park over stile in wall to left of cottage.

Turn right through gate over track and through further gate. Following right hand hedge pass, through gate on right and descend track to go through Bevington Farmyard. At end of drive turn right through gate in front of cottage, cross field and stile to further stile and footbridge. Follow left hand hedge to find stile and footbridge in corner. Keeping to left hand hedge find further stile and footbridge to cross straight ahead over field to yet another footbridge. Cross next field to exit via gate into lane. Turn left and follow lane for approximately two miles crossing main road at Clapton.

At end of lane by Severn House Farm bear right to go through metal gate onto embankment (4). Follow along top of embankment right to Power Station. Turn right and follow path around Power Station to main road. Turn right to follow road for approximately 1.1km to bridge. Cross bridge and turn immediately right over metal stile to follow bank of Berkeley Pill as far as Stock Lane. Turn left up Stock Lane then right along Salter Street to Town Hall.
